RE: Case(s) 20-mc-50795-VAR-EAS; 20-mc-50804; 20-mc-50805

To the clerk of the court (Julie Owen):

i, write this, for there are many of the land, similarly situated, who have listened to me on a few talkshows, whom appear to be truly interested and have told me they will be following along with this case to witness the results, for i, believe i, have chosen a simple method, to move my case through this court i, have chosen to appear before a federal district court, in the capacity of, a 'man' aggrieved, making simple wishes and demands, to order the restoration of my rights, and to seek compensation of the declared wrongs;

That being said....

i, now present to this district court of the united states for eastern Michigan', my case.

i, as a man, wish and respectfully, demand, (as You have always been professional and courteous to me in the past) of this court to: (1) file my suit, and; (2) to give my case an Action Number, and (3) deliver the enclosed summons to the wrongdoers, (4) please time and/or file stamp my original copy of the suit and mail it back to my address (Please see enclosed: Self-Addressed, pre-Stamped envelope); (5) It is my wish, to not be charged a fee, and i, do not want to diminish my standing to that of a pauper, i, want my standing to remain that of "a man aggrieved", i, do not believe, i, have been presented a 'bail' for services rendered;

i, do not believe that at this time, an officer of this court, can claim i, owe this court a debt;

i, DO Believe, that this court was created for the use of man, and those of mankind to settle contentious matters, in a civil manner, without a fee;

i, declare i, appear before this court, to seek the restoration my rights' that are secured and protected by the 'united states Constitution', and as all of the officers of this court, have bound themselves' to the 'Constitution', i, as a man, call upon the officers of this court, to perform their duties;

That being said....

IF the officer of this court, still maintains that i, am in error of my beliefs, i, will accept their beliefs, therefore i, have enclosed the copy of the funds you have already collected of $$1,200.00 [7018 2070 0000 0219 4403] filing fee demanded of me from the clerk of the court, for this matter in controversy between i, and The Government of the STATE of Michigan, has gone on for too many years already, So please, just take the $$1,200.00 as i, need this case to MOVE NOW, for once this case is settled, it will allow an my family to return to somewhat normal, allow me to not have to live with my family who are flesh and blood to be returned to us... (Ooh, if You wish to allow me to proceed "fee free" please return the $$1,200.00)

Sincerely,

thomas james brown bay, moonish national
